

The Norden Nippers go to sea

Purbeck Mining Museum's Norden Nippers are going on an adventure. Can you help them by filling in the missing words and answering the questions?

The Norden Nippers are planning an adventure to Poole! One of them is wearing a black _____.

How many Norden Nippers are there? _____

Where would you like to go on an adventure? _____

At Goathorn Pier, the Norden Nippers collect everything they need to make a sailing boat a wooden box, strong sticks _____ cloth for a sail, and some rope.

How many parcels and packages are there on the pier? _____

What do you think the pier is made from? _____

At Poole Quay, Captain Trussell unloads all the parcels and packages on the ferry. He puts the Nippers' wooden _____ at the top of the harbour steps. The Nippers creep out to have more adventures in Poole!

What adventures do you think the Nippers had in Poole? _____

Now it's time for the Nippers to go home. Luckily, they don't get seasick as the water is calm. They sail homeward, just as the _____ is setting.

What material used to be taken by boat and sent all around the world from Poole?

What things can you make from this material?

No-one had noticed the _____ ferry from France! Luckily Captain Le Breton turns just in time to avoid a crash.

The Nippers are using a sail to power their boat. What is used to power a ferry?

What language do you think Captain LeBreton speaks?

The Norden Nippers had made it back to Purbeck and were very happy to see the old _____ hut. When they saw this, they knew they were home at last.

What work do you think the Foreman did in a Clay Mine?

What other adventures do you think the Norden Nippers would like?
